STATE TAX COMMISSION

In the Matter of the Petition

of

ROBERT F. and LIBBY R. McCAUSLAND

DECISION

for Redetermination of a Deficiency or for Refund of Personal Income and Unincorporated Business Taxes under Articles 22 and 23 of the Tax Law for the Years 1968, 1969 and 1970.

Petitioners, Robert F. and Libby R. McCausland, residing at 26805 Carranza Drive, Mission Viejo, California 92675, have filed a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund of personal income and unincorporated business taxes under Articles 22 and 23 of the Tax Law for the years 1968, 1969 and 1970. (File No. 00278).

A small claims hearing was held before Philip Mercurio,

Small Claims Hearing Officer, on April 26, 1977 at 9:15 A.M., at the offices of the State Tax Commission, Two World Trade

Center, New York, New York. Petitioner Robert F. McCausland

appeared pro se and for his wife, petitioner Libby R. McCausland.

The Income Tax Bureau appeared by Peter Crotty, Esq. (James Morris, Esq., of counsel).

ISSUES

- I. Whether petitioner Robert F. McCausland's activities as a mutual funds wholesaler for the years 1968 and 1969 qualified him for a professional exemption under section 703(c) of the Tax Law.
- II. Whether the petitioners, Robert F. and Libby R. McCausland, properly prorated the exemptions, statutory credit and itemized deductions for the year 1970, with respect to a change of residence.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 1. Petitioners, Robert F. and Libby R. McCausland, timely filed New York State resident income tax returns for the years 1968 and 1969. Petitioner Robert F. McCausland did not file New York State unincorporated business tax returns for said years. The petitioners filed a 1970 New York State nonresident income tax return and indicated thereon that they were residents of New York State from January 1, 1970 through September 30, 1970.
- 2. On October 29, 1973, the Income Tax Bureau issued a Notice of Deficiency against petitioners, Robert F. and Libby R.

 McCausland, imposing unincorporated business tax upon the business income received by petitioner Robert F. McCausland during the years 1968 and 1969, on the grounds that his selling activities constituted the carrying on of an unincorporated business and that his income derived therefrom was subject to unincorporated business tax. The Bureau also prorated the exemptions, statutory credit and itemized deductions claimed on the petitioners' 1970 nonresident return due to a change of residence during said year. The refund of $1,139.51 due for the year 1970 was applied to the unincorporated business tax liability for the years 1968 and 1969.

- 3. Petitioners moved from New York State to Harlington, Texas on September 30, 1970.
- 4. Petitioner Robert F. McCausland was a mutual fund whole-saler during the years 1968 and 1969. During these years, his work consisted of promoting the sale of shares in various funds for the principal underwriter, Shareholders Management Company, in the New York City Metropolitan area.
- 5. Petitioner Robert F. McCausland's duties as a mutual funds wholesaler were to induce "qualified broker-dealers" doing business in said petitioner's assigned territory to become members of, and to continue as members of a selling group with Shareholders Management Company and to promote the sale of shares in the said petitioner's assigned territory through "qualified members" of the selling group.
- 6. Petitioner Robert F. McCausland stated that he was not an employee of Shareholders Management Company. He maintained, however, that he was a professional by virtue of his knowledge and expertise in his field.

- 7. Petitioner Robert F. McCausland attended Dartmouth College and received a Bachelor's degree in Economics.
- 8. Capital was not a material income producing factor and more than eighty per cent (80%) of his income was derived from services rendered by him.
- 9. That the activities of petitioner Robert F. McCausland as a mutual funds wholesaler during the years 1968 and 1969, although requiring special knowledge and experience, did not constitute the practice of a profession exempt from the imposition of unincorporated business tax in accordance with the meaning and intent of section 703(c) of the Tax Law.
- 10. That the aforesaid activities of petitioner Robert F. McCausland during the years 1968 and 1969, constituted the carrying on of an unincorporated business in accordance with the meaning and intent of section 703 of the Tax Law.
- 11. That the exemptions, statutory credit and itemized deductions claimed by the petitioners for the year 1970 were properly prorated, with respect to their change of residence, by the Income Tax Bureau in accordance with the meaning and intent of section 654 of the Tax Law.

12. That the petition of Robert F. and Libby R. McCausland is denied and the Notice of Deficiency in the sum of $3,667.86 issued on October 29, 1973 is sustained.
